A poster for the First Sunday of Lent in February 2021. The main image shows a person in a white, flowing robe and head covering walking away from the viewer on a path that leads into a vast, arid desert landscape under a hazy sky. The text 'FIRST SUNDAY OF' is at the top, followed by 'Lent' in a large, elegant script font. In the bottom right corner, there is a purple box with the text 'FEBRUARY 21 2021'. Below the image, a quote from the Gospel of Mark is written: 'The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert, and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan. He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him.' At the very bottom, the reference 'Mark 1:12-13' is provided. Small copyright information is visible on the left side of the image.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION CLASS

Tuesday February 23rd at 6:30pm, in the Parish Hall, David Calderon will host a study on the Sunday Mass Readings of Lent. This easy-to-follow study provides an eye-opening explanation of the Sunday Gospels. It will provide an awesome insight for everyone, from the beginner to the accomplished student. This season of Lent, make a special sacrifice of your time, and receive a deeper understanding of the Mass Readings which point us towards Easter. Wearing of masks, social distancing, and disinfecting precautions will be taken. I pray you have the best Lent Season ever.

Fast & Abstinence

REPENT AND BELIEVE IN THE GOSPEL

Lent is the time of year we devote to scrutinizing our lives in the light of our baptism into the death and resurrection of Jesus. Today's readings are a nice shorthand catechism of what our baptized lives mean. As Noah passed through the waters of the flood to a covenant with God, so did we enter into a covenant, a promised relationship with God through our baptism.

Peter's letter gives an explicit explanation of what our baptism means: it is an appeal we make to God for a clear conscience. How do we obtain this clear conscience? The words proclaimed by Jesus immediately following his temptation show us the way: "Repent, and believe in the gospel" (Mark 1:15). It might be a good spiritual exercise to keep these readings before us throughout the entire season of Lent, a means to help us return to a life lived by our baptismal promises. Copyright © J. S. ## FEAST OF FAITH

Seasonal Changes for the Liturgies of Lent

Today is the First Sunday of Lent. During this season of preparation for Easter, our churches look stark and simple—no flowers at the altar, no festive banners or decorations. And our liturgies feel different, too. The organ is quiet except to accompany the singing of the assembly. The Gloria, our Sunday song of rejoicing, is not heard except on solemnities, and we will not sing the Alleluia, our joyful acclamation of praise, until the Easter Vigil. "Alleluia cannot always / Be our song while here below," says an eleventh-century hymn. "Alleluia our transgressions / Make us for a while forego; / For the solemn time is coming / When our tears for sins must flow" (Alleluia dulce carmen, J. M. Neale, trans.).

These changes in the liturgy will catch our attention, and make us eager for the festive outpouring of joy that will return with Easter. This year, may the stripped-away liturgies of Lent remind us to strip away what is not essential in our lives to make space for the crucified and risen One, and thus to be ready to sing "Alleluia" once again when Easter returns. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. ## THE DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

Will be prayed after all weekday masses in the Church. Jesus encourages us to pray this beautiful prayer daily. Jesus tells St. Faustina "It pleases me to grant everything souls ask of me by saying the chaplet." If your schedule permits it, we invite you to stay behind after mass for a few minutes and pray this beautiful prayer with us.
