THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME • JANUARY 24, 2021

Jesus came to Galilee
proclaiming the gospel of God:
"This is the time of fulfillment.
The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent, and

believe in the gospel."

MARK 1:14-15

A graphic for the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 24, 2021. The background is a soft, warm gradient. At the top, the text reads: "Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: 'This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel.'" The word "believe" is written in a large, elegant, cursive script. Below the text, a pair of hands is shown holding an open book, with the pages fanned out. The book is illuminated from below, creating a glowing effect. At the bottom right, the text "MARK 1:14-15" is displayed. On the left side, a vertical banner reads "THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME • JANUARY 24, 2021". At the very bottom, there is a small copyright notice: "Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co. 2ND DIOCESAN COLLECTION

Today's second diocesan collection is for The Church in Latin America. This collection helps fund grants for pastoral efforts such as lay leadership training, seminarian and religious formation, prison ministry, and youth ministry, among others. It also helps fund local parishes address the immediate pastoral and material needs of vulnerable refugee families. Please plan to give generously.

FORMED.ORG

Want to remind our parishioners about FORMED.org which is FREE to every parishioner in our parish. FORMED.org is a ministry of the Augustine Institute and is available via our website oloangleside.org and can be downloaded to your phone or other device. There is videos, lessons, children's videos, movies, and more, provided in both English and Spanish.

BAPTISMAL CLASS

The next Baptismal Class will be held on Sunday February 7th at 4pm in the Parish Office Conference Room.

MASS INTENTIONS

Please call the Parish Office to schedule your Mass Intentions for the year.

**RELIGIOUS EDUCATION for 2020-21****

Catechism/CCE, RCIC & RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) has begun for this year, with some changes necessary to meet diocesan requirements and guidelines for safety due to COVID-19. Classes meeting in person are only those in which students are preparing to receive Sacraments (1st Communion Year 1 and 2, Confirmation Year 1 and 2, RCIC, and RCIA) for the current time, while all other courses are meeting virtually and/or receiving weekly assignments and activities for family catechesis with teacher support through the GroupMe messaging platform. (Parents/students are added to GroupMe after being registered.)

Textbooks and materials are being provided as necessary for every class. You can view the calendar for this year at www.oloaingleside.org/CCEcalendar, and visit the website (www.oloaingleside.org) to view information about all courses. If you have not yet registered, please do so as soon as possible. You can register online at: www.oloaingleside.org/registration

Thank you for your patience and support as we navigate unique circumstances this year in light of the COVID-19 pandemic.

A NEW DAY DAWNS

Today we hear how Jonah, sent by God to warn the people, storms through the streets of Nineveh, scaring the citizens out of their wits. And it works! God has a change of heart, seeing “by their actions” how the people turn from evil (Jonah 3:10). A new day dawns.

Next we hear Paul telling the Corinthians, “The world in its present form is passing away” (1 Corinthians 7:31). He calls for a change of heart. Stopping short of telling them to stop carrying out their everyday activities, he urges them—rather mysteriously—to live “as though” they aren’t doing the things they are doing. A new day has dawned.

Finally, Jesus stands on the shore and cries, “The kingdom of God is at hand!” (Mark 1:14). Simon and Andrew abandon their nets—and even their father—and follow him. A new day had dawned.

Everyone has to change when a new day dawns: The Ninevites, the Corinthians, the apostles, even Jesus! Didn’t a new day dawn today for us as well?

A NEW WAY, A NEW WORLD

When the people of Nineveh repented, they showed it by wearing sackcloth and fasting from food. Sometimes we might think that way: That repenting means punishing ourselves or feeling sorry. Jesus sees things differently.

He preached repentance that was a change of heart, a new way of looking at things, a new way of acting. In the gospel today, we see an example. The first people he calls to be disciples were fisherman. They would have considered their family, their partners, and their boat as the most important things in their lives. You need all of them to be a successful fisherman.

Yet the disciples don’t even hesitate when called by Jesus. They leave behind their boats, their nets, even their father, to follow Jesus. They don’t worry about what they will do, or look back at what they are leaving behind. Now they are fishers of men. Their “repentance” was more than just giving up sins. They were beginning a new life and a new way of looking at the world.

Saint Paul refers to this as a new world. When he talks about not using the world fully, he means not fully engaged in the world, but looking to a better one, where God is more important than any passing pleasure or pain. Is your marriage an example of God’s love for your friends and relatives? When you are rejoicing, do you give thanks to God? When you are shopping, do you buy what you really need, or what you think will make you happy? Jesus calls us all to this new way of living. With Jesus, we can make a new world. THE DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

Will be prayed after all weekday masses in the Church. Jesus encourages us to pray this beautiful prayer daily. Jesus tells St. Faustina “It pleases me to grant everything souls ask of me by saying the chaplet.” If your schedule permits it, we invite you to stay behind after mass for a few minutes and pray this beautiful prayer with us.
