ADULT FAITH FORMATION CLASS

Come join us for another extraordinary opportunity to learn more about our faith. Thursday July 1st at 6:30pm in the Parish Hall, David Calderon will present a Biblical Walk Through the Mass! with Dr.

Edward Sri. You will come to understand the profound significance of what we say and do at every Mass, and you will see its words and gestures in a new light, helping to deepen your participation in the Sacred Liturgy. In this study, we will gain helpful insights for getting the most out of every Mass. By learning more about the Mass we will become more deeply enriched by its profound mystery. So please join us for this rewarding opportunity.

JESUS' EXAMPLE OF HELPING OTHERS

In today's second reading Paul offers a wonderful argument to his converts at Corinth for seeking to help those in need. He is dealing with a practical problem, arranging a collection for the poor of the church of Jerusalem; but as he often does, he develops an important teaching about Jesus to make his point.

After asking that they show their faith by generous gifts, he reminds them of the "gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich" (2 Corinthians 8:9). In the Incarnation our Lord assumed our human nature, certainly becoming poor for one who is God. The ultimate gracious act of this poverty was going to the cross with all its terrible sufferings. By this act of poverty, we definitely become rich. Now our sins can be forgiven; we can share in the very life of God through the sacraments; we can attain eternal salvation! Copyright © J. S. FEAST OF FAITH

Preparation of the Gifts

The altar is prepared; the gifts are received. Several brief rites follow with accompanying prayers, some prayed silently by the priest and deacon and others said aloud. We call this part of the Mass the "preparation." What kind of preparation is happening? First, the presider holds up the paten or bowl containing the hosts, and says words that Jesus must have said many times, since they derive from ancient Jewish meal prayers: "Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation!" We have brought forward our gifts, our offering to God, and now we acknowledge that they are not really ours—the gifts that we give are God's gift to us. It is "through your goodness" that we have gifts to offer. It is significant that we offer not wheat and grapes, but bread and wine; "fruit of the earth and work of human hands." Bread and wine are both God's work, and ours. These preparatory rites also prepare us for what we are about to do in the Eucharist, a mystery in which divine and human meet; a holy collaboration in which our action is caught up into God's divine plan.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — God did not make death, nor does God rejoice in the destruction of the living (Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24).

Psalm — I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me (Psalm 30).

Second Reading — Your abundance should supply the needs of the others (2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15).

Gospel — Your faith has saved you (Mark 5:21-43 21-24, 35b-43)).

SANCTUARY & ADORATION CANDLE

The Church Sanctuary and Chapel Adoration Candle has weeks available. If you would like to have the candle burning for the intention of a loved one, a birthday, or anniversary, please call the parish office 776-2446; the cost for the candle is $15. The candle will burn in their memory for a week.

THE DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

Will be prayed after all weekday masses in the Church. Jesus encourages us to pray this beautiful prayer daily. Jesus tells St. Faustina "It pleases me to grant everything souls ask of me by saying the chaplet." If your schedule permits it, we invite you to stay behind after mass for a few minutes and pray this beautiful prayer with us.
