Today's second diocesan collection is for The Catholic Relief Services. Funds from this collection provide food to the hungry, support displaced refugees, and bring Christ's love and mercy to vulnerable people here and abroad. This collection also helps six Catholic agencies to provide relief and support for struggling communities and to work for peace and reconciliation among our marginalized brothers and sisters here and around the world. Please give generously.

GOD UPHOLDS ME

I take for my sureties: The power of God to guide me, the might of God to uphold me, the wisdom of God to teach me, the eye of God to watch over me, the ear of God to hear me, the word of God to give me speech, the hand of God to protect me, the way of God to go before me, the shield of God to shelter me.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION CLASS

Tuesday March 16th at 6:30pm, in the Parish Hall, David Calderon will host a study on the Sunday Mass Readings of Lent. This easy-to-follow study provides an eye-opening explanation of the Sunday Gospels. It will provide an awesome insight for everyone, from the beginner to the accomplished student. This season of Lent, make a special sacrifice of your time, and receive a deeper understanding of the Mass Readings which point us towards Easter. Wearing of masks, social distancing, and disinfecting precautions will be taken. I pray you have the best Lent Season ever.

OUR CREATOR MAKES ALL THINGS

Bishop Mulvey is reaching out with a Pastoral Message and Dedication to St. Joseph as we seek to rebuild our parish communities. He is also launching a special Appeal for Families. This will replace this year's Bishops Stewardship Appeal. If you are able to help other families, please pledge at DioceseCC.org. Your gift will help us strengthen those families most in need and assist the elderly and youth at risk. This is where we are suffering the most. St. Joseph cared for the Holy Family and trusted in God. We too trust in his intercession as we continue working together to build up God's family in our diocese.

GOD'S MERCY

Today's reading from the second book of Chronicles contains a sort of "mini-history" of Israel. It highlights God's mercies in choosing Cyrus the Persian to be an instrument of deliverance when the people were in captivity in Babylon. Despite their sinfulness and the deserved punishment, they were undergoing, God's mercy was lavished on the people in the form of a miraculous act of liberation.

The Letter to the Ephesians, in much more theological terms, gives a similar account of a God "who brought us to life with Christ—by grace you have been saved." The author stresses that it was when we were "dead in our transgressions" that God saved us, an act of pure grace. He emphasizes that it is not our own efforts that freed us from sin ("this is not from you"); rather, "it is the gift of God." This, of course, is the heart of the entire Pauline corpus, that salvation comes to us by faith in God's mercy, revealed in the death of Jesus. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

SANCTUARY & ADORATION CANDLE

The Church Sanctuary and Chapel Adoration Candle has weeks available. If you would like to have the candle burning for the intention of a loved one, a birthday, or anniversary, please call the parish office 776-2446; the cost for the candle is $15. The candle will burn in their memory for a week.

THE DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

Will be prayed after all weekday masses in the Church. Jesus encourages us to pray this beautiful prayer daily. Jesus tells St. Faustina "It pleases me to grant everything souls ask of me by saying the chaplet." If your schedule permits it, we invite you to stay behind after mass for a few minutes and pray this beautiful prayer with us.
