THE HOPE AND PROMISE OF REDEMPTION

The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, the mothers and pregnant women. They shall be led along an easy road so that no one will stumble. The Lord's kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people.

Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God's love and care for us. "Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves" (Psalm 126:5-6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble (Jeremiah 31:7-9).

Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading — It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Gospel — Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way (Mark 10:46-52).

HOLY SOULS

The Holy Souls in Purgatory are members of the Church who await the purification of their souls before joining the saints in heaven for all eternity. The souls in purgatory cannot pray for themselves, they cannot do anything to hasten their entrance into heaven; but we can pray for them and offer masses for them. Our prayers and mass intentions for the suffering souls in purgatory is an act of charity that eases their suffering and helps them complete their purification sooner. Just as the saints in heaven pray for us on earth making our way to heaven, so we who are alive on earth can pray and offer up masses for the holy souls in purgatory. If we pray for them, they will pray for us in return in gratitude for helping them get to heaven more quickly. For the past number of years, candles were traditionally placed on the altar in remembrance of a deceased loved one many times instead of enrolling the deceased in the "All Souls Day Novena" of masses. Candles became more popular than the novena itself. While it brings comfort to many of us to remember our loved ones by lighting a candle in church for them, it is the Holy Mass offered up for that soul that has more spiritual benefits. This year, Fr. Patrick is encouraging us to consider enrolling our loved ones in the nine day novena of masses. Parishioners are more than welcome to light candles in memory of their loved ones in the church by the statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Eternal rest grant on to them O Lord . May perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

ROSARY

Traditionally October is the month we dedicate to Our Lady of the Rosary. We invite you to come and join us in praying the rosary after the 8am Mass each Friday and again on Sundays throughout the month of October at 7:30am before 8am Mass.

Our Lady of Guadalupe meeting Monday October 29th at 6:30pm in the office conference room. If you would like more information or interested in joining the Guadalupanas please attend the meeting.

If anyone would like to purchase the Adoration or Sanctuary Candle in memory of a loved one or special intention, please call the parish office 776-2446; the cost for the candle is $15. The candle will burn in their memory for a week.
