Third

Sunday of Lent

A woman of Samaria came to draw water.
Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink."
John 4:7

A religious illustration depicting the Samaritan woman and Jesus at the well. The woman, dressed in a white robe and a yellow headscarf, is standing and holding a water jar. Jesus, in a red and blue robe, is kneeling and looking up at her. The scene is set outdoors with trees and a well in the background. The illustration is framed by a dark border. Above the illustration is a dark red banner with the date "March 15, 2020". Below the illustration is a dark red circle with the word "Third" in white. Below the circle is the text "Sunday of Lent" in a cursive font. At the bottom of the illustration is a quote from the Bible: "A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, 'Give me a drink.'" followed by "John 4:7".

THIRST

In today's Gospel the Samaritan woman asks Jesus for the flowing water so that she will not have to keep coming to the well. Jesus then talks about what real thirst is, and how he, and he alone, can quench that thirst. Lent calls us to find those places deep within ourselves where we thirst. In our thirst, as did the Israelites, we cry out to God asking for springs of living water. Deep down we know that only the Lord can satisfy these thirsts. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
